11. Then, for some reason, the Microsoft system will test if you are a human or not by enforcing you to do some puzzles (as it called). Just follow the instruction on the dialog. This part cannot be summarized because it may differently time to time.

12. Once you can verify that you are really a human, it will create your account and welcome you with permission review dialog.

13. Finally, you can sign in as a guest successfully.!
